

LOML - Summary of Key Terms and Conditions

Purpose of this document	This document is a summary of the terms of the Limited Online Music Licence (LOML). The LOML is aimed at companies and individuals providing smaller scale online music services to the UK public where the gross revenue from the service is less than £12,500 per year. Please refer to the terms and conditions of the licence for full definitions and details o all other matters relating to using music under LOML
Music use covered by the LOML	The LOML covers performing and mechanical rights in musical works for most types of online and mobile services, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Permanent Download Services• Limited Download/On-demand Streaming Services• Premium and Interactive Webcasting Services• Pure Webcasting Services• Music Podcasting Services• General Entertainment: Limited Download/On-demand Streaming Service• General Entertainment: Download Service Please refer to the LOML terms and conditions for full service definitions
Rights and music uses not covered by the LOML	The following rights are not covered by the LOML and would need to be cleared directly with publishers/copyright owners: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Moral rights• Graphic rights eg. any Karaoke service within a music service• The right to adapt a musical work• The synchronisation of musical works with images• The use of unauthorised arrangements, adaptations, parodies, burlesques and dramatico-musical works• The use of commercial music in contexts which the licensor ought reasonably to consider as being prejudicial to the public standing of the composer, featured artist or relevant copyright owners• The rights in sound recordings of the musical works The use of music in certain circumstances is excluded. In particular, the following uses need to be licensed under separate schemes or directly with the publishers/copyright owners: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Music with advertising or sponsorship of any product or service• Mobile ringtones• Simulcasting of traditional scheduled broadcast services

Royalty Rates	Royalty rates under the LOML are dependent upon the type of service to be licensed and the levels of music usage. Please refer to the LOML rate table for a full breakdown of the royalty rates. Under the scheme, services which provide a range of music offerings can be licensed, however if the maximum usage limits are exceeded the service must be licensed under our.
Accounting	Licensees have to pay for the LOML in one advance payment via our online application process using a debit or credit card. In certain circumstances alternative payment options can be arranged. Please contact the online licensing team if you are unable to pay via the online system. Fees and usage limits will be pro-rated for services operating for less than 12 months, subject to a minimum licence fee of £59 (+VAT)
Reporting	Licensees are not required to provide line-by-line details of the musical works used, however, at the end of the licence term the licensee will be required to declare total levels of usage and revenue details. The licence will only remain valid while the service remains within the usage and revenue restrictions. It is the responsibility of the service, as the licensee, to notify PRS for Music at the point at which either limit is exceeded.
Duration of the scheme	Licence fees quoted in the LOML rate table relate to a 12 month licence period. The 12 month licence period commences on the day you purchase your licence, and your licence will expire 12 months after that date.
