

Optional Schedule C
Extension to Territory

Subject to the terms and conditions set out in the main body of the Agreement (“the Main Agreement”) together with those set out below, PRS for Music and the Licensee agree that the definition of Territory shall be extended by adding the Additional Territory as defined below:

“Additional Territory” shall mean the United States of America and Canada.

However, the Agreement shall only apply to the Additional Territory upon the following terms (which are in addition to those set out in the Main Agreement unless stated otherwise):

1. Prior approval of the mechanical copyright owner in the Additional Territory is required for the use of any Commercial Work which originates from the Additional Territory unless the use of that Repertoire Work was In Context (as defined below).
2. “In Context” shall mean any of the following contexts:
 - (i) record company or artist management approved promotional material;
 - (ii) clips from feature films;
 - (iii) music used in the context of an interview with an artist, composer or producer where the music used is associated with the interviewee;
 - (iv) live performance where the performing artist has consented to the use of the material;
 - (v) programmes commissioned or produced by the relevant artist’s record company or management and where the consent of the artist has been obtained for such programme.
3. The following shall be excluded from the extension to Territory:
 - (a) sales to commercial terrestrial network broadcasters in the Additional Territory;
 - (b) sales to broadcasters in the Additional Territory which do not have licences from the appropriate performing right society (or societies).
4. In respect of sales to the Additional Territory, the reference to “8.5%” in clause 5.4(a) in the Main Agreement shall be changed to “17%”.

PRS for Music: Music Programme Sales and Music Programme Licence

5. The reference in clause 3(c) of the Main Agreement to Territory shall not be extended pursuant to this Schedule C and so “Territory” in the context of that clause shall not extend to USA and Canada.

Agreed:

Signed:

Print name:

Date:

On behalf of PRS for Music

Signed:

Print name:

Date:

On behalf of