

HOTELS TARIFF CYPRUS (Tariff 'H')

Effective from 1st January 2017

This tariff applies to performances and communication to the public of copyright music within PRS for Music's Repertoire:

At hotels, hotel apartments, boarding houses, guest houses and various rooms within these categories including lounges, dining rooms, saloons, terraces, swimming pools, restaurants, cafes, bars, pool bars, banqueting suites, ball rooms, discos, TV rooms, gyms, shops etc.

Excluded from this Tariff are performances in other categories for which other Tariffs are in effect, e.g. cinemas, restaurants, bars, disco bars etc.

1 GENERAL CONDITIONS

- 1.1. Where the music user has applied for and obtained a PRS for Music licence before musical performances commence, the standard royalty rate will be charged and payable for the first year of the licence.
Where the music user has not applied for and obtained a PRS for Music licence before musical performances commence, the first year royalty rate will be charged and payable for the first year of the licence.
After the first year of the licence, in either case, the standard royalty rate will be charged and payable.
- 1.2. The tariff is published for general information; publication does not constitute an offer to grant a licence. The royalty applicable to any performance or series of performances will be determined by PRS for Music on the basis of all the relevant circumstances. In particular, this tariff is not intended to be exhaustive and for performances which in PRS for Music's opinion fall outside those contemplated below, rates will be quoted on application.
- 1.3. An applicant for a licence must give whatever information is necessary to enable PRS for Music to determine the royalty, either in terms of this tariff or otherwise if inappropriate.
- 1.4. PRS for Music reserves the right, without notice, to increase the monetary rates in this tariff from time to time provided that cumulatively those increases shall not exceed contemporary increases in the official Index of Retail Prices.

PAYMENT OF ROYALTIES

- 1.5. Royalties are payable annually in advance against PRS for Music's invoice, at the commencement of each licence and then on each renewal date for the licence as invoiced, or as soon after that date as the invoice is delivered.

VALUE ADDED TAX

- 1.6 Every licensee under PRS for Music's tariffs will pay to PRS for Music in addition to the royalty due, a sum in respect of Value Added Tax calculated at the relevant rate on the royalty payable.

SEASONALITY

- 1.7 Where the premises or part of them are open only during a limited season in each year, the annual royalty is adjusted by a proportionate reduction and by an addition of 15% of the reduced amount.

11 DEFINITIONS

Admission receipts means all monies paid or payable in respect of admission charges in connection with any entertainment to which this tariff applies, less party booking discounts and Value Added Tax or any other government tax or imposition of like nature for the time being in force.

Amusement machines (computer, video and other) means machines known as, for example: amusements with prizes; amusements-with-gift; skill with prize; fruit or gaming machines; games, quiz and similar machines, whether or not capable of being operated by the insertion of a coin or token.

Audio juke box means a machine (other than a video juke box) for playing recorded music and capable of being operated by the insertion of a coin or token.

Background Music means music when performed by compact disc player, digital music device, record player, tape player, or video player otherwise than for featured purposes, or audio juke box or video juke box, or radio or television (terrestrial, cable or satellite) operated on the premises or diffused through a loud-speaker from another part of the premises or a source outside the premises.

Capacity means where there is no formal means or calculating the capacity of a room, that capacity is assessed by reference to the maximum number of persons which can reasonably be accommodated in the room, or which is permitted under any regulation by Fire Authorities.

Featured music means music performed by performers in person, including karaoke performances, or a record or a tape-player primarily for entertainment such as by means of discotheque, cinematograph equipment or video player.

Karaoke performances means those performances given by unpaid singers in conjunction with specially produced recorded music, with or without the provision of video presented synchronised lyrics.

Music on hold means music played by mechanical means attached to a telephone switchboard so as to be audible to incoming callers before they are connected to an internal extension. It does not extend to any music audible on any Premium Rate Service number.

Payments to performers means gross salaries, gross wages; plus fees, expenses or other emoluments paid to performers (excluding any disc jockeys); and gross fees (net of any VAT) paid to third parties for the services of performers.

Performers means singers and performers or musical instruments and includes orchestra conductors or leaders, whether or not they combine in their performance other activities such as dancing or acting as compères.

PRS for Music's repertoire means all and any musical works (including any associated words), the right of public performance in which is controlled by PRS for Music, or any society in other countries with which PRS for Music is affiliated.

Record, compact disc, tape-player or radio means any gramophone, compact disc, tape or cassette player or radio, or other mechanical/electronic contrivance for playing musical works, except video player, or contrivance, such as a juke box, capable of being operated by the insertion of a coin, token or card.
