

Distribution times

The following table shows when royalties will be distributed after the use of repertoire in the UK

		When will I be paid?
When my music was used	PRS		PRS & MCPS	MCPS
	Television (except music channels)	Radio, cinema, live (except concerts), background music, music TV channels	All companies under the Online Music Licences (OML) scheme (i.e. iTunes)	TV broadcasts	Radio broadcasts	AP1 audio products, record labels and audiovisual products	AP2 and AP2A audio products, and covermounts
January							May
February	July	July	October	July	July	May	June
March							July
April							August
May	October	October	December	October	October	August	September
June							October
July							November
August	December	December	April	December	December	November	December
September							January
October	April	April	July	April	April	February	February
November							March
December							April

Unpaid performance claims
 Successful claims for unpaid performances are usually distributed at the earliest next available distribution.

The above distribution timetable forms the expected payment schedule for most royalties, however late reporting occasionally causes royalty payment to be delayed until the following distribution period. Members should not contact Member Services until after the second distribution has passed without payment.